

The Final Research Paper!

This paper will focus on a topic concerning either one, or both, of the plays we have been reading. You will focus in on a topic that is narrow enough to fit into the length requirement but also fulfills the requirement that your paper be scholarly in nature. Please consider the themes we have discussed in class and points that students have brought up during our discussions.

Please submit your topic idea to my email (wwend@bcc.edu) by Monday November 16th

Please make sure your paper adheres to these standards formally:

- Uses MLA Citation correctly
- Double Spaced
- One inch margins all around page
- Times New Roman size 12 ONLY
- Inserted lastname_pagenumber in top right corner
- A works cited page for all sources cited

Papers will be submitted to be electronically to my BCC email (wwend@bcc.edu) by midnight on Friday December 11th. If you would like me to look at a rough draft of your paper please submit it by the end of our Thanksgiving break (November 30th). This will give me plenty of time to get feedback back to you.
