

The Process Analysis Paper

Your first essay this semester is going to be about process analysis. For this essay, describe a process using either the directional or informational process analysis strategy. Your essay will need to be at least 750 words with an introductory paragraph, a minimum of three paragraphs in the body of the essay, and a conclusion.

Make sure your paper is typed in Times New Roman size 12, titled, page numbers are inserted in the top right corner (lastname_pagenumber), double spaced, and has one inch margins.

If you are submitting a rough draft to me, please submit your draft to my email by February 1st. I will not examine late drafts! Your papers will be due to my email (professorwend@gmail.com) by midnight on February 5th.
